

MORE MONEY FOR TEMPORARY WORK

The benefit for IG Metall members who are temporary workers

As an IG Metall member, you will receive an extra payment twice a year. You will need to make a claim to receive this. Find out here how to do this.

From 2021, temporary workers who have been members of IG Metall for at least 12 months, will receive a member benefit in the form of an extra payment in addition to the holiday and Christmas bonuses. The amount depends on the length of employment by the temporary agency. It increases in three fixed stages and from 2024 onwards with every wage increase.

Prerequisite for member benefits:
As of the cut-off date of 30 June or 30 November respectively, at least 12 months of membership in IG Metall (or another Confederation of German Trade Unions union) and at least 6 months of Employment by the temporary agency.
